

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

22nd SPACE

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING and CONFERENCE in MECHELEN

Mechelen, Belgium 27-30 April 2011

Hosted by Katholieke Hogeschool, Mechelen, Belgium (www.khm.be)

Benefit from the
EARLY-BIRD
FEE
Register before
31.12.2010

MAIN THEME

Learning by sharing: Strengthen the links between higher education, applied research, and practice.

TRACKS

Track 1: Collaborative approaches to knowledge building to encourage practice in education

Educational changes, educational development, accreditation, innovation and entrepreneurship, collaborative knowledge building, knowledge centres, applied and practice-based research: quality criteria, building research capacity.

Track 2: The role of (faculty) staff in promoting practice in education

Best practice in: teacher training, peer learning, action learning, staff internships, collaboration models, mentors.

Track 3: Multilingualism in modern business and education

Integrating practice in language teaching; graduates and the multicultural workplace; languages and competitiveness; languages and employability.

Track 4: Effectiveness of real-life working concepts in HE

Quality of competences, motivation to learn, assumption of new tasks (the teacher as coach), expectations of clients versus educational objectives, facilitation by institutions, added value for companies and society, etc.

GUIDELINES FOR ABSTRACTS

Guidelines for abstracts, papers and workshops and the online submission form are available on the SPACE website (www.space-eu.info). Proposals must be submitted for review using the online form by December 1st, 2010. Selections will be made by January 5th, 2011. The approved papers will be integrated in the Conference proceedings and the best papers (following an editorial selection) will be published in the "Journal Advances in Higher Education: Research, Education and Innovation."